VERIFICATION OF ADDRESS IN CASE OF LIVING WITH LEGAL RESIDENT

Under Section 1302 of the Pennsylvania School Code:

A child shall be considered a resident of the school district in which his parents or the guardians of his person resides. When a resident of any school district keeps in his home a child of school age, not his own, supporting the child gratis as if it were his own, such child shall be entitled to all free school privileges accorded to resident school children of the district, including the right to attend the public school maintained in such district or in other districts in the same manner as though such child were in fact a resident school child of the district, and shall be subject to all the requirements placed upon resident school children of the district. Before accepting such child as a pupil, the Board of School Directors of the district may require documentation of residency.
