

MANHEIM CENTRAL SCHOOL DISTRICT

MANHEIM, PENNSYLVANIA

BARON CODE OF CONDUCT FOR CO-CURRICULAR AND EXTRACURRICULAR PARTICIPATION

(2021-2022)

This code is subject to review on a bi-annual basis.

All Manheim Central School District students, including any student who represents Manheim Central School District in an extracurricular activity, is under the guidelines of the Baron Code. If a student or parent fails or refuses to agree to abide by the provisions of the Baron Code or if a student or parent fail to complete the attached signature form, the student will not be allowed to practice or participate in their chosen extracurricular activity until such time as this signature form is completed to the satisfaction of the building administration.

Students will be required to comply with these rules starting with the summer before their seventh grade year and until they end their high school education.

The Baron Code has been developed in an effort to develop and define a consistent measure of how to address specific rules violations.

For purposes of this policy, the term “co-curricular and/or extracurricular” shall mean those activities which are sponsored or approved by the Board of School Directors but are not offered for credit toward graduation. Such activities shall ordinarily be:

- Conducted wholly or partly outside the regular school day;
- Marked by student participation in the processes of initiation, planning, organizing and execution;
- Available to all students who voluntarily elect to participate;
- Where eligibility requirements are necessary or desirable, the Board of School Directors shall be so informed and must approve the establishment of eligibility standards before they may be operable.

Examples of such activities include, but are not necessarily limited to, intramural sports, interscholastic sports, and musical organizations such as marching band and jazz band, student council, dramatic productions, FFA, NHS, cheerleading and clubs. A complete list of co-curricular and/or extracurricular activities is maintained by the Middle School and High School.

Co-curricular and/or extracurricular activities are an important part of the total school program and are open to participation by all students regardless of individual differences. The opportunity to participate is a privilege provided by the taxpayers of the Manheim Central community. Through voluntary participation, the student is expected to give time, energy and loyalty to the activity in which he/she participates. He/she is also expected to abide by the training rules, regulations and responsibilities unique to that activity.

Co-curricular and/or extracurricular participants are often in the public eye, and, hence their personal conduct must always be above reproach. They have an obligation to project at all times a positive image of themselves and the Manheim Central community they represent. Failure to do so can lead to immediate dismissal from co-curricular and/or extracurricular activities. While this code establishes a comprehensive set of behavioral expectations, an individual coach/advisor has the authority to levy additional consequences within his/her own program.

Academic eligibility will be based on final course grades and Interim Progress Reports (IPR's) which are submitted every Friday when the school has a full week. Academic eligibility will be determined on Friday when students, teachers and coaches will be notified of a player's status. Coaches are encouraged to discuss academic concerns/issues with students and parents. Building administration is responsible for notifying student athletes of their eligibility status.

The following are guidelines and expectations that every co-curricular and/or extracurricular participant must meet. In addition, consequences are also listed should a co-curricular and/or extracurricular participant not meet the outlined expectations and guidelines.

SCOPE OF BARON CODE OF CONDUCT

To ensure the consistent enforcement of the Baron Code of Conduct, it applies to all students participating in co-curricular and/or extracurricular activities enrolled in grades 7 through 12. Alleged violations of the Baron Code for the current school year will be investigated by the building/athletic administration. The terms of this code apply throughout the year to conduct occurring on or off school property. For each unexcused absence beyond the fourth, there will be an additional two (2) weeks of suspension. 2. The privilege of a student to participate in co-curricular and/or extracurricular activities may be revoked by the school administration for flagrant or frequent violation of the Student Behavior Code and/or the Baron Code of Conduct.
3. The obvious exception to this policy code is when injury or illness limits participation. In such a case, the awarding of a varsity letter or other honors will be at the discretion of the advisor/coach.
4. Should a student violate the Baron Code at the end of the school year, a meeting between the student, parents, coaches, athletic director and administration will occur to determine a course of action for the student to participate in activities during the summer. The student will need to make up the hours necessary to participate.
5. Students with disabilities who violate the Code of Student Conduct, or engage in inappropriate behavior, disruptive or prohibited activities and/or actions injurious to themselves or others, which would typically result in corrective action or discipline of students without disabilities, shall be disciplined in accordance with state and federal laws and regulations and Board policy and, if applicable, their Individualized Education Program (IEP) and Positive Behavior Support Plan

The following procedures apply to reports of alleged violations of Baron Code of Conduct:
 - a. Coaches and advisors shall immediately report alleged violations of the Baron Code of Conduct to the building administration.
 - b. The building/athletic administration shall investigate reported or suspected violations of the Baron Code of Conduct to determine their credibility. The administration is concerned that the information is credible, not necessarily the witness.
 - c. If a report is credible, the building/athletic administration shall offer an informal hearing to explain the information to the student, allow the student to respond and ultimately decide whether or not the student should be suspended from co-curricular and/or extracurricular activities.
 - d. If the building/athletic administration finds the student violated the Baron Code of Conduct, the student's parents/guardians shall be given notice to inform them that the student has been suspended from co-curricular and/or extracurricular activity and that the decision may be appealed. Notice of the suspension shall be provided to the athletic director, when appropriate, and the applicable coach or advisor.
 - e. The appeal board shall consist of a building administrator, the athletic director, when appropriate, and one coach/advisor not involved in the student's activity.
